

Security Worker
Clear Hills Youth Treatment Centre

The Clear Hills Youth Treatment Centre is a distinctive healing and treatment program based on First Nation culture, ceremony, traditions, songs, and land-based teachings. The Clear Hills Youth Treatment Centre follows a wholistic, client-centered, needs-based approach, celebrating inclusion, identity and diversity. The Security Worker is responsible for monitoring the Clear Hills Youth Treatment Centre buildings and grounds to prevent fire, theft, vandalism, and illegal entry. This role is also involved in maintaining security technology, alleviating security concerns, and assisting staff in de-escalating conflict situations with clients, visitors and the community. This is a critical role to ensure staff, clients and visitors of the Clear Hills Youth Treatment Centre are safe and feel secure to focus on healing.
